Throughout her career, Degenhart worked with others to establish a ministry of reconciliation in a troubled neighborhood on the south side of Chicago. She left ASHP employment to become the administrator of a ministry and served as a contract surveyor until her religious community. She then collaborated with others to establish a ministry of reconciliation in a troubled neighborhood on the south side of Chicago.

The award recognizes individuals who have been instrumental in the growth of pharmacists and in elevating the status of the profession. The Harvey A. K. Whitney Lecture Award is presented by the ASHP Foundation and is the highest award given by the organization. The award is given to an individual who has made significant contributions to the advancement of the profession of pharmacy.

The reception will start at 7 p.m. in the Hilton Baltimore’s Key Ballroom, on the second floor of the hotel. All members of the Board will be at the first meeting of the June 12, 2016, Board of Directors, and the Board will be joined by ASHP’s President and CEO, Philip J. Schneider, for the opening session of the Board of Directors meeting.
